Global Diversity In School

M. Poornima

Assembly Coordinator

Dear All,

We are diverse in our cultural, religious, lingual, socio-economic background and gender, but we are united under one roof as JPS families. Come we have to iron out our differences and celebrate our similarities. Global diversity in school brings and prepares the students to meet the future world. Through global diversity, students are interconnected with different people.

. We are celebrating different festivals in school, it's United us to know better about each other's religious and cultural ethics. We give respect to each other's practice. With an open mind, we explore and inquire, we are always learning from each other. Together we strive, hand in hand. We speak different languages. We dress up differently. Our choices are different. Our tastes are different. Our skin tone differs from each other. Likes and dislikes may vary. We all have different perspectives. But remember we are Humans. We are born to learn from each other and educate others with respect and learn values from everyone.

"It's been a long climb, but we are finally at the top." It is truly a humongous, pride moment for JPS fraternity, as our young story teller, Raghav Balaji of grade VII with his outstanding efforts in the CBSE Budding Authors Programme (2022) had brought laurels to the school. His story "Village on stilts" has been selected under the category of classes 5-6. It is a big honour, as we had competed against 45 schools all over India. We appreciate the endless hours spent working on the same, and this had motivated the entire JPS immensely. Only 4 schools from Tamilnadu has been selected and we are one among them to do a pride parade. As always, we are counting on the students to go an extra mile. Congratulations!! on the well-deserved success!

Level 2

"One lazy and boring - as - usual morning, I am getting up from the bed with eyes half shut. Why do I have to wake up this early? Can't they just take classes in the evening? Now I have to brush, get ready and go to school. Now even during classes I just want to sleep. I just don't know why but my eyes just don't want to stay open. I guess I shouldn't have played too many video games yesterday. Oh my God, I have a test today. Why didn't I even study for it? Man, I shouldn't have played those brain rotting video games". Whoa, whoa, whoa wait up. Now I kinda don't like the way this story is heading. Don't you think it's a little too normal and boring? Let's change what happened yesterday, shall we? Now let's see what happens.

2 / 6

"I feel so energetic that they can keep classes in the day as well as the night. Oh and, I almost forgot. I have a test today. Good thing I prepared for it yesterday. Okay let me just quickly talk to my friends".

"Wow. I didn't expect this but most of them don't know that there is a test today. When I asked them most of them were like 'What test?' They think I'm very lucky. And yes I am because this story is about me, so I can just change the story whenever I need to. I better go write my test".

ToonA

3 / 6

"Man, that test was extremely easy. I got the usual marks which is 100%. As usual my friends are jealous. Now I am flying towards home like a free bird. Wait up, why does it feel like something is missing? Let me ask my best friend about it".

"Oh great. He told that there is a football competition which I enrolled for. And it starts at 3:40 which is just 20 minutes after the time the school ends. That means it is 5 minutes after now. How am I going to reach the stadium that fast? They can't play without an experienced goal keeper". Don't you think it is time to do it again? Yeah the story has got to change. Let's do it and see what happens now.

To

4 / 6

"Man, that test was extremely easy. I got the usual marks which is 100%. As usual my friends are jealous. Wait isn't there a football competition today? Yeah there is. It's time to rock the game". "No! How did I even miss that ball? It just slipped through the gap between my hand and my head. I was so close. I could have caught it. Now this is going to cost our team the entire match and our only chance to win". You know what let us change the direction of where this story is headed.

5 / 6

"Yesssss! Let's go! I caught the ball. Oh yeah! After some time, "We won the match! That's how we roll!"

Back at home at night in the bed, "I showed my mother my trophy and told her about my marks in the test. She was so proud of me. I am pretty sure this is one of the best days in my entire life! I have got to sleep now because there are still plenty more adventures to enjoy".

I know you are all wondering how I am doing stuff like this. What I am trying to say is that there is no fate. We are all meant to be free and not under the under control of a puppeteer. Be the puppeteer and the puppet. So write stories your own way.

The lost key

M. Tejas

Grade IV - B

Blurb : This is an interesting story about a young boy who comes to live in a supposedly haunted house. Do you want to know what happens next in the story? Does he get to see any ghosts in the house? Was the house actually haunted? Well, read the haunted house story till the end, and you will find out.

Chapter 1: Detective Rith

There was a boy named Rith in a family of six who always looked at everything with his magnifying glasses. His parents and grandparents would tell him that he would be a detective when he grew up. The family decided to move to a new place. Rith was super excited to explore new things in his new house. All his things were packed, and he was waiting for the car to arrive. This new house was very huge and grand. It had all the luxuries that one would want from a big house. The house also had a big backyard where Rith could play with his friends. Rith was extremely glad to go to the new house.

Rith Comes to His New House

When the family arrived at their new house, the neighbors warned them that the house was haunted. But the family didn't believe the people and still moved into the house. Rith was very excited to meet his new friends and play with them. But he saw that no one would come to the house.

Everyone in the streets thought that the house was haunted; hence, they stayed far away from it. Rith was sad about the fact that his friends would not play with him, but his mother made him understand that people were just scared. Rith took off his magnifying glasses and started to explore.

Chapter 2 : Weird Cries

One night, Rith heard a weird cry from upstairs. He went upstairs to check. Although he wanted to explore, he tiptoed. Nobody was there. So he went back to his bedroom to sleep. Another night, there was a crying voice again. But this time he heard the cry with a squeaking voice. He heard a scratching noise from upstairs. He went running to his parents to talk about the squeaking noise.

Chapter 3: The Sobbing Cat

They went upstairs with a torch. Rith saw a stopwatch that was not showing the exact time. He also saw a clue to find the key to unlocking the stopwatch. He started solving the clue with his mom and dad.

The clue was: —&quot; FIND ME AT THE BACKYARD.&quot;
So they immediately went down to the backyard.

Another clue in the swing said, "I AM HERE UNDER THE BOY'S BED." They rushed to each and every bedroom in their house and found a key under Rith's bed.

Rith screamed out of happiness that he had found the key to the stopwatch.

He unlocked the stopwatch. Immediately after unlocking, he heard a cat sobbing and coming near him. He then understood that the cat was stuck inside the stopwatch, and it was making a weird cry to get help from people who moved into the house.

So the cat and Rith were friends forever.
